Alderman Robert Downing, the only Republican member outspoken against the Commissioner, said:

"I don't propose to be a party to tickling the vanity of Mr. Bingham by agreeing to send a mounted squad to Washington. He just wants to show what he is doing, and the character of the terrified discipline he has inaugurated among the members of the force. Need Policemen Here. "This is an unusual proceeding and emanates, I am sure, from the mind of one who wants to have his vanity pleased. Let Bingham keep his mounted policemen in New York, where they are needed. There is no necessity of graiffying Bingham's vanity, I repeat. I shope and trust that the members of this Board will turn down the request." President McGowan sought vanity to tide over the feeling. "I assure you," he said, "that Commissioner Bingham has had no hand in this matter. I have not heard from Mr. Bingham, one way or the other. I appreciate that if Mr. Bingham were eliminated there would be no doubt about your granting this request. The men have requested it. There is to be no cost to the city. We shall all feel proud, I am sure, of the showing that our mounted men will make at Washington." But the anti-Binghams demanded that a motion to refer to the Police Committee be put and a rising vote followed. "Little Tim" Sullivan and the rest of the Tammany members, with everal Republicans, rose. They were overwhelmingly in the majority. STOCKS HIGHER ON
